NRVCS BOARD ACCEPTS SALTZBERG'S RESIGNATION

The New River Valley Community Services (NRVCS) Board of Directors has accepted the resignation of Les Saltzberg as Executive Director.

Board members have appointed Dr. Harvey Barker, Director of Access (Adult Clinical and Emergency Assessment Services), and Deborah Whitten-Williams, the agency's Director of Finance, to serve as interim co-managers of the agency. Barker and Whitten-Williams have each been with NRVCS for more than 20 years.

"Until a new Executive Director is named, our Board has full confidence in the abilities of both Dr. Barker and Mrs. Whitten-Williams to manage the day-to-day operations of this agency, and to help us move forward," stated Rev. Richard Gregory, NRVCS Board Chair. "During this period of transition, our top priority will continue to be providing quality services to our clients and to the community at large."
